ELCI-Monmouth

since 1986

ELCI-Monmouth is right next to Western Oregon University (WOU). Our students have access to the university facility.

Monmouth is a lovely town with a friendly community. Most of everything is within walking distance.

Half-Half Program

ELCI students with sufficient TOEFL scores can participate in the Half-Half Program with WOU and if successful can matriculate into the full-time academic program in the university.

TOEFL Waiver Program

ELCI students who finish level 4 can attend Western Oregon University with the center director's recommendation letter.

ELCI-Albany

since 2012

Quality Tutoring System

Albany is a fun and convenient college city. It is full of shopping malls, chain stores, and restaurants. It is 90 mins to Portland, Oregon's biggest city, and about 30 minutes to Salem, Oregon's capital city.

ELCI to LBCC

Small Class Size

ELCI students can enter LBCC easily. In LBCC, you can finish many college requirements with a cheaper tuition. You end up saving money in getting your American college diploma!

Intensive English

Small class size
(average 10)

Description

At ELCI, our teachers can help you learn quickly and be ready to really use your English. The ELCI strives to equip its English language learners with the necessary tools to actively participate in authentic English-speaking communities, including U.S. high schools, universities, the workplace, and the global community where English is used. Every effort is made to ensure students learn in safe and interactive environments that foster intercultural and educational growth.

Head Start to High School

We help you get ready for American high schools!

Description

This program is specifically designed to prepare students to enter American high schools in the Fall. Many high school students get ready for high school studies in America by attending this program. Students learn vocabulary and listening skills specific to math, science, literature, social studies, as well as learning ESL and American culture. We will also contact the students' high schools to find out what they need to read for the coming semester and help them get started early. Now that's a head start!

Homestay and Volunteer America (HAVA)

English Lessons & Real-Life Experience!

Mini-Internship

Friendly Host Families

Volunteering Locations

Libraries, daycare centers, schools, small business, museums, etc.

Description

HAVA students stay with a friendly homestay family, take morning English classes at the ELCI, and volunteer in the afternoon in a local business or youth program. This mini-internship and homestay is a great way for students to get practical experience using their English. HAVA students can participate using a tourist visa. This makes things simple and less expensive. HAVA students need to have a working command of English, so they can be active and helpful in their volunteer positions.

Duration

2, 3, 4, 8 weeks

English + Culinary

And MORE!
Talk to us to customize your group program!

Available Programs

English + Geology

Learn English and science at the same time! The theme of this program is "Volcanoes, Tsunamis, and Dinosaurs." Oregon has many geological wonders. Students will visit famous Mt. St. Helens which erupted in 1980, tour the beautiful Columbia River Gorge, travel to John Day Fossil Beds and dig for real fossils (and keep them!). They can even participate in a lecture and demonstration of a Tsunami Simulator at Oregon State University!

English + Wild West

Oregon was settled in the 1840's and was the end of the Oregon Trail which brought thousands of pioneers from the east to the fertile valleys of Oregon. In this program, you will learn all about the rich history and traditional culture of Oregon. You will also learn English and enjoy exciting activities such as cowboy roping, rodeo, square dancing, and visiting a native American reservation.

English + Art

In this program, students will take English lessons in the morning, and attend various art workshops outside of the school in the afternoon, such as pottery making, glass blowing at the Oregon Coast, art museum tours in Portland, etc. Students will also attend art classes at Linn-Benton Community College, and take on leadership roles and work with their American teammates to set up an art camp for American students.

English + Culinary Adventure

Oregon is famous for its seasonal berries, nuts, and fresh seafood. Aside from the English lessons surrounding the topic of culinary arts, the students will also attend culinary classes at Lin-Benton Community College, visit the Portland farmers market, visit the world-famous Tillamook Cheese & Ice Cream Factory, enjoy local cuisine twice a week in local restaurants, and much more!

Duration

2-3 weeks

Start Dates

Housing

Homestay

Homestay is a great way to stimulate your language learning and learn American culture. Our host families are friendly and know how to take care of you.

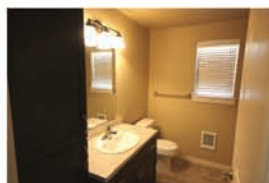

“My host family is very kind. They love to talk with me. My host family takes me anywhere. They make me smile.” - Kensho Ochiai / Japan

“My host family is a very good family. My host dad is a very funny person. My host mom is a very good cook. They are very kind.” - Chia-Ying Tu / Taiwan

“My host family is very nice!!! Delicious food, fun kids, tender host mother and father, and clean rooms!!! Sometimes, there are events at home or we will go out somewhere. I appreciate my host family.” - Miho Yamada / Japan

Apartments

There are apartments close to both centers available if the students wish to live independently or with their friends. For more details or recommendations, please contact the ELCI for further assistance.
